

Virtual Open Days University 2020-21

The following is a list of virtual open days for universities. Most of these take place in the evening or at a weekend. They are REALLY VALUABLE sources of information! As they are online this year, we recommend that you try to 'attend' those for the universities that you intend on applying to. You often need to book your online space via the individual university website.

Some universities offer additional information sessions for specific courses/faculties within their establishment and these are where you can find out specific course information and can help make your future application much stronger.

Glasgow Caledonian - 3rd & 7th October
Glasgow - 2nd October
Strathclyde - 28th October & 14th November
Edinburgh - 23rd September
Edinburgh Napier - 10th October
Queen Margaret - 17th October & 14th November
Stirling - 24th October
Dundee - 26th September
Abertay - 26th September
Aberdeen - 3rd October
Robert Gordon - 7th October & 14 November

Please check each university website for up to date information about planned Virtual Open days.

Open Days (virtual or otherwise) are optional. However, it is recommended that you enrol for these events.
